

Receiving Divine Guidance For Major Decisions in Life

©2007 Dr. Dan Cheatham, www.WordOfTruthSeminary.Com

Romans 14:17 KJV - For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but 1) righteousness, and 2) peace, and 3) joy in the Holy Ghost.

Isaiah 55:12 KJV - For ye shall go out with 1) joy, and be led forth with 2) peace: the 3) mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and 4) all the trees of the field shall clap their hands.

Three-Fold Cord Not Easily Broken

(Ecclesiastes 3:12)

Three Lighthouses off North Carolina Coast

(all three must look like one light to be on course)

Multitude of Counselors (3 Witnesses) Principle

(Pr 11:14 & 15:22, Mt 18:16)

Word of God (Psalm 119:105)

Wide Open Opportunity (Revelation 3:7-8)

Witnesses

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| a) Your own | S.pirit (Romans 8:16, 1 John 5:10) |
| b) Your | S.hepherd (1 Chronicles 20:20) |
| c) Your | S.pouse (Amos 3:3) |

EXERCISES:

A. Using the Romans 14:17 formula, righteousness would be

_____, peace would be _____, joy would be _____.

B. Using the Isaiah 55:12 formula, joy would be _____, peace would be _____, mountains and the hills breaking open for you would be _____, all the trees of the field clapping their hands would be _____.

Gems To Remember:

Literal language must be interpreted literally.

Figurative language must be interpreted figuratively.

The Three Laws of Bible Interpretation:

- 1. Scripture must be kept in context.*
- 2. Scripture must interpret scripture.*
- 3. Scripture must balance scripture.*